

The American Revolution: Children's Book - Academic

Your assignment is to create a children's book that tells (and shows) the story of the American Revolution. The goal of this is to take the most essential events leading up to and including the American Revolution and break them down into their most important aspects; however, be sure to keep a careful eye on historical accuracy!

You should include at least 10 of the following major events:

Albany Plan	Sons of Liberty	Proclamation of 1783
Bunker Hill	French and Indian War	Boston Massacre
Stamp Act	Lexington/Concord	Townsend/Navigation Acts
Tea Act	Boston Tea Party	Coercive/Intolerable Acts
Dec. of Indep.	1 st Continental Cong.	Stamp Act Congress
Yorktown	Treaty of Paris	2 nd Continental Congress

Based on the events you choose, you will write a children's book. Keep in mind the format, vocabulary (and explanations), and purpose of most children's books. In addition to an Introduction and a Conclusion, your book must include at least Eight of the following vocabulary words:

Monarch	Legislature	Parliament
Salutary Neglect	Colony	Charter
Compact	Mercantilism	Boycott
Repeal	Delegates	Common Sense

These children books must be at least Eight pages long, and must include at least One illustration for Ten of the topics listed above. Illustrations should be your own work and must be colored. Rest assured you will not be assessed on the quality of your art, but on neatness, clarity, and effectiveness of your illustration in supporting your written topics.
